About 1,000 rebels were at Platte City, eight miles east of here, yesterday, supposed to be on their march [illegible] crossing the river at Liberty.

KANSAS, Mo., Sept. 17.—Considerable excitement was created here on Saturday, 14th inst., by the appearance of rebel scouts opposite bank of the river. A company [illegible] men were sent over [illegible] who dis [illegible] a camp of 100 to 300 [illegible] the river. [illegible] in the afternoon [illegible] the 5th [illegible] killed several rebels and took several prisoners, with numbers of horses, and destroyed their barracks. Only one Federal wounded.

Yesterday, a large force of rebels, supposed to be a part of the band recently encamped at St. Joseph, appeared four miles below on opposite side of the river, and attempted to cross the river on flatboats, sending part of their force to attract the attention of the Federals by firing into the City of Wyandotte. They were repulsed and boats sunk.

The Guilt of Rebellion.

The New York Evening Post says that "the guilt of rebellion is as much shared by those creatures who are prating about peace as by the meanest eavesdropper that lurks in the purlieus of our camps or listens in ante-rooms to pick up something which the rebels, his employers, may turn to account.

Whoever, therefore, talks of any peace short of such a peace acknowledging the validity of our Constitution, and the duty of obedience to the laws, is a rebel. He counsels submission to the revolters, and is their agent. Whoever raises the white flag raises the Secession flag, and must as certainly expect that it will be pulled down by an indignant multitude, as if it had the emblems of Secession glaringly displayed on its folds. Whatever press insists that the Government shall submit to the rebels, and abdicate the powers which the people have confided to it, is both rebel and anarchist, and renounces the protection of the laws."

Slavery South—Twenty-eight years ago the Presbyterians of South Carolina and Georgia, by their constituted representatives said:

The influence of the negroes upon the moral and religious interest of the whites is destructive in the extreme. We cannot go into detail. It is unnecessary. We make our appeal to universal experience. We are chained to a putrid carcass. It sickens and destroys us. We have a millstone about the necks of our society, to sink us deep in the sea of vice. Our children are corrupted from their infancy; nor can we prevent it. Many an anxious parent, like the missionaries in foreign lands, wishes that his children could be brought up beyond the influence of the depraved heathen.

Sylvester Mowrey writes from Arizona that political issues have nothing to do with that territory; that the Apaches threaten to drive soldiers and all out of the country; and that the people want government protection.

A man in S lesburgh, Cal., found his calf dead. He sprinkled it with strychnine, and the next morning he found lying with it an eagle, a wild cat, two crows and a skunk.

Robert Willis, now in Oregon City, says that there are about 1,000 miners on the South Clear Water, making from $5 to $10 a day.

A prize fight for $500 was to come off between two bull terriers at Sacramento on Tuesday last. Savage amusement.

cal fact that is well calculated to stop the English merriment over our small loss at the battle of Manassas.

The London Times calls the fight at Bull Run a "sham battle," and makes merry over the losses on the National side, which it pretends to consider ridiculously small. It may not be regarded as impertinent for us to compare this "sham battle" with the English attack on Sebastopol. We find that they stormed the Redan, and were beaten off in such disorder that they could not rally. Their total number of killed was 368. The loss in killed on the part of our army at Manassas was 480. The former is called by the London Times an "awful conflict"—the latter a "sham battle," in which "the only struggle was to get away."

That is a shot right through the center of John Bull.—Sac. Union.

Civil and Military Oath.—The following is the form of oath prescribed by a late Act of Congress to be taken by all civil and military officers of the United States. This form has been recently sent out to California and Nevada Territory:

I, , of California, having been appointed by the President of the United States to be of , do solemnly swear that I will support, protect, and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States against all enemies, whether domestic or foreign, and that I will bear true faith, allegiance and loyalty to the same—any ordinance, resolution, or law of any State Convention or Legislature to the contrary notwithstanding; and further, that I do this with a full determination, pledge and purpose, without any mental reservation or evasion whatsoever; and, further, that I will well and faithfully perform all the duties which may be required of me by law. So help me God.

Gens. Scott and McClellan.—General Scott and General McClellan seem to work well together. I know one thing—that McClellan has his way. General Scott is great enough to appreciate the ability and services of his subordinate, and McClellan is modest enough not to offend the General-in-chief.—Unless there is some radical defect in our troops, either in numbers or the condition of the men, I fully believe that the Capital will be defended, and when cool weather comes effective operations will be resumed.

A Wind-fall to the Missouri Secessionists.—The St. Louis News says: "On Wednesday afternoon, the coin belonging to the Fayette (Howard county) Branch of the State Bank, was seized and carried off by a company of twenty Secessionists, led by Captain Poindexter of Randolph county. The Cashier, apprehensive of an attempt to rob the Bank, had packed the specie in three trunks and transported it to the Allen depot of the North Missouri Railroad for shipment to St Louis. When he arrived at the depot, he found Poindexter with his men waiting for him. They seized the trunks with their contents and made off, and have not been heard of since. The amount stolen is stated to have been $100,000.

took yesterday after a sharp fight, brings us three miles nearer Washington than heretofore, and our posts and camp are now in full sight of the Capital.

Boston, Sept. 6th.—General Butler paid a brief visit to the State House to-day. He will probably address a Union meeting shortly to be held at Faneuil Hall.

Washington, Sept. 6th.—A gentleman who returned here at a quarter past 1 o'clock to-day from Georgetown Hights, reports heavy and continued firing between 11 and 12 o'clock. They counted during that time over 100 reports. Some of these reports appeared to be in the vicinity of Munson's Hill, and others above the chain bridge. Previous to the firing a balloon was visible for one hour over Fort Corcoran, and on its being lowered the bright light was exhibited from a high point—the colors, red, white and blue, being distinctly visible at a distance of little less than seven miles. Immediately on the lights being extinguished the firing began. The cause of the firing is not yet ascertained.

From Memphis.—A late letter from thence contains these paragraphs:

About two thousand five hundred men from the North left Memphis at the outbreaking of the troubles, and as they made up the active portion of the business community, the city is flat enough.

The monument to General Jackson in the public square at Memphis, and which was erected by the citizens of Memphis in remembrance of their distinguished statesman, is daily giving them the lie to secession doctrine, by the boldly chiseled inscription on its pedestal—cut in the solid granite by their own order, to perpetuate the great principles of their immortal Jackson: "The Union must and shall be preserved." They are badly off for officers in the valley of the Mississippi, and military matters are pretty thoroughly mixed. Major General Polk has very little weight—is all fuss and gas—and people are very tired of his presence. The stocks of goods are running very low, as may be supposed, throughout the entire South. They will be badly off for boots and shoes. Drug stocks are particularly broken, and the very item of salt—or the want of it, rather—is likely to put them to their trumps.

It has been prohibited by law to kill any sow pig in the South this season, looking to the production of their own pork to feed the negroes upon the coming Winter; but without salt they cannot keep the pork and what to do they do not know. Salt cannot be smuggled in any quantity in trunks, as quinine or percussion caps, but big ships must log along and run the blockade in order to be of any benefit. If the blockade be perfected they will suffer beyond endurance for salt alone.

Gen. Pillow's famous chain bridge, which was stretched across the Mississippi upon buoys to blockade the river against an invading force, has been torn away by drift wood, and thus has perished another gem in the coronal of Pillow's military glory.

CITY.

TO MERCHANTS AND ADVERTISERS.—Merchants and advertisers generally are invited to call and examine the circulation of THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN. The space allotted to advertising is limited to six columns, so that no advertisement can be lost in the paper.

COMMON COUNCIL.—No business of any importance was transacted at the Common Council on Friday night last.

MORE EMIGRANTS.—The Carrie Ladd made an extra trip on Saturday, to bring down a large number of emigrants.

ARREST.—The City Marshal placed a man out of reach of mischief on Saturday, for flourishing his Bowie knife around the saloons and threatening to rip another open.—He will have a hearing this morning.

B. F. Kendall, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, arrived in this city, from Olympia, on Saturday night. He will remain here a few days.

Charles Hutchins, Esq., Indian Agent of the Nez Perces Reservation, is on a visit of business in this city.

Senator Nesmith is expected to reach this city to-morrow evening. He will proceed to Washington in the next steamer.

It is expected that Senator Nesmith, Mr. Kendall, and other distinguished visitors in our city, will be at the State Fair on Wednesday.

There is a large proportion of girls among the incoming emigrants. Capital investment this for Oregon.

It has been noticed that when an emigrant wagon contains a pretty girl, some impressible young man of our city is soon seen wending his way to it with a basket of apples. This is all right.

Portland is likely to be blessed with a capital article of Butter. It is known that there will be large lots of the finest Butter on exhibition at the Fair; and it is said that some persons in our city are determined to purchase it. We expect next week to see "Premium Butter" advertised in our city papers.

"How d'ye like brother Pearne yesterday?" "A political sermon." "If that was a political sermon the Bible is full of politics."—The person scattered.

We noticed stock of various kinds on the way to the Fair. Two beautiful elk were in this city yesterday on the way to that point.

THE GOLD WATCH FOR LADY EQUESTRIANSHIP AT THE FAIR.—It has got out that the young men of Oregon City will offer a Gold Watch for the best Lady riding at the Fair. Won't that bring out the Lady riders? Won't there be such a sight as was never before witnessed in Oregon? Won't the gallant Superintendent of that portion of the exhibition have his hands full of business for the four days of the Fair and his heart full for some days thereafter? We think so.—What more beautiful sight is there than a fine lady, in appropriate costume, upon a gay and gallant and gentle horse? We don't know of any.—Oregon Argus.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN.—An Eastern paper says:

President Lincoln makes no secret of the fact that when the rebellion is suppressed, he intends to make a new dispensation of the [illegible] list of offices in the gift of the Government. He has frequently said that he longs for the time when he can prove his love for the saviors of the Republic, by placing them in offices of honor and profit.

Lady Franklin and her niece, on the 20th, were traveling in the interior of California.

Gen. Beauregard recently hung two men at Manassas Gap, charged with giving information to the federal forces.

It is said that in 1850 there were only ten synagogues in the United States. To-day we have over 250,000 Jews and about ninety synagogues, and similar communities out of which will be organized other synagogues.—In the city of New York there are twenty synagogues and 30,000 Jews.

COURT AT VANCOUVER.—The U. S. District Court for Clark county W. T., commence this morning.

MARRIED:

On Sunday, Sept. 29th, at the Synagogue Beth Israel, in this city, by the Rev. Mr. Bar[illegible], Mr. Joseph Bergmann to Miss Caroline Bettman, both of this city.

The bride and bridegroom send their compliments to the "Oregonian office," and we return ours to the happy couple, wishing them all the joys that belong to wedded life.

"Happy they, the happiest of their kind!
Whom gentle stars unite, and in one fate
Their hearts, their fortunes, and their beings blend."

☞ Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. SWETT, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c. and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. ☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most extensive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26d&wly
